

Inn at Laurel Point is looking for a General Manager to take over the leadership of this unique operation from our current leader who is retiring after 14 challenging but incredibly rewarding years at the helm.

The expectation is that this successful individual will take over the reins at a mutually agreed date in the latter half of this summer.

Reporting to the Company's Board of Directors, the person will lead Inn at Laurel Point and be the face and spokesperson for the Inn and the Company. They will be responsible for the financial, physical and cultural health of the Inn and Company.

Qualifications we are looking for:

At least 15 years' experience in a senior position within a hotel of which at least 5 is as a General Manager or equivalent in the full service/luxury end of the market.

Such positions should represent a wide exposure to the many facets of the industry and at least one should be of a length and depth to demonstrate the mastership of that discipline (one may call it "Jack of all trades and master of at least one").

Higher education relevant to the hotel industry is expected.

Demonstrated and ongoing involvement and contribution in local and provincial industry affairs is looked at very favourably.

Who is right for the job?

We are looking for that consummate professional who is known for their knowledge and demonstrated accomplishments. A person who is known as a great leader of a diverse team who can operate under our mantra of "firm, fair, fun".

About the Company and Inn

Inn at Laurel Point is the sole asset of Paul's Restaurants Ltd, whose single shareholder is the Paul & Artie Arsens Trust. The late Paul Arsens started the Company in 1938 and had many enterprises. Inn at Laurel Point was his final venture, which he bought in 1980 and extended in 1989. We are a social enterprise that has been carbon neutral for 10 years.

The Inn has 196 bedrooms housed in 2 different styled wings. There are 131 in the original Laurel Wing and 65 in the Erickson Wing (named after the world renowned architect Arthur Erickson who designed it). There is over 10,000 sq ft of meeting space and Aura Restaurant and Patio. All set in over 6 acres, including the award winning garden, on the prominence that separates Victoria's inner and outer harbours. The ground floor of the Inn recently underwent a major renewal, reopening in February 2020.- just in time for COVID!! The website provides further details.
