Duo Café Bakery promises to delight guests and community with mouthwatering baked treats and daily features.

Inspired by Inn at Laurel Point's very own dynamic duo, Paul and Artie Arsens, Duo Café Bakery marries delicious treats with a warm and comfortable atmosphere.

With a historic list of cafés, hotels, and restaurants falling under the Arsens name, the duo's profound appreciation for quality work and craftsmanship, and an everlasting affair with art and the beauty of nature, this chapter in Inn at Laurel Point's story embodies all of these elements in a brand new space.

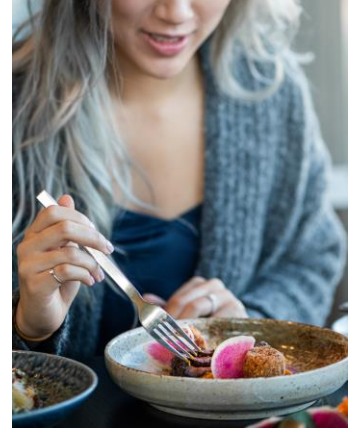

Deeply rooted in Inn at Laurel Point's commitment to sustainability, Duo Café Bakery offers compostable to-go packaging, a loyalty program for regular patrons, and various initiatives ensuring guilt-free indulgence for all guests and visitors.

Duo Café Bakery is the new local spot for a perfect pairing of coffee and pastries, tea and scones, milk and cookies, or six of one and half a dozen of the other!

OUTER BEAUTY

- Just over 1 acre of landscaped private gardens, including a kitchen garden with diamond shaped garden beds for herbs, edible flowers and vegetables
- Working with our executive chef, our gardener has planted a variety of unique fruits and vegetables such as fuzzy kiwi, artichoke, yuzu, cucamelon and sudachi, a Japanese citrus.
- A dozen meticulously cared for bonsai pine trees were replanted and 48 new trees were added
- Infinity edge saltwater reflecting pool spans 144 cubic meters and spills into a rain garden
- Welcomed 60,000 honey bees to the Inn at Laurel Point family with Alvéole. They're tucked away in their own corner in our large garden, so they can get to work and pollinate the neighbourhood.

HEALTH & WELLNESS

- The Inn is entirely non-smoking.
- The brightly lit, glass encased Pool is adjacent to an outdoor sundeck and gardens.
- The Fitness Studio equipped with cardio machines, free weights, overlooks the gardens and outer harbor.
- Peter Pollen Park on Laurel Point peninsula surrounding the Inn offers runners and walkers alike views of Victoria's inner and outer harbours

STORY STARTERS

- The iconic Erickson Wing was designed by world-renowned Canadian architect Arthur Erickson
- Our private gardens have been fully redesigned by Murdoch de Greeff Inc. Landscape Architects. Highlights include: a new infinity edge saltwater reflecting pool spanning 144 cubic meters, the replanting of meticulously cared for bonsai pine trees from the original garden, the addition of 48 new trees, a refurbished 8-foot waterfall, high efficiency irrigation and UV filtration, a rain garden and culinary garden in just over 1 acre of newly landscaped gardens.
- Aura Waterfront Restaurant + Patio has opened with a revitalized interior and globally-inspired share plates menu unique to the city's hotel restaurant scene.
- A social enterprise since 2008, the Inn is dedicated to making improvements to the hotel that prioritize social, environmental, and financial well-being in the community.
- As the first carbon-neutral hotel in BC, the Inn is committed to finding sustainable ways to operate while reducing their impact on the planet
- An award-winning wedding venue, the Inn received a Vancouver Island Wedding Award in 2022 and was named a Professional BC Wedding Award finalist.
- We've crafted a Carbon-Neutral Events program for our conference guests. Equipped with our new Carbon Toolkit, our Sales & Events Team will provide meeting planners with a carbon footprint estimate to help mitigate the use of emitted carbon from conference & event travel, food & beverage emissions and other meeting related resources.
